

Amateur performer wanted

steirischer herbst, the multidisciplinary festival for contemporary art in Graz and Styria, is looking for 20 male amateur performers for the Opening Ceremony of steirischer herbst '19 on 19.9.19 at 17:00.

About the artist

Zorka Wollny (1980, Krakow) is an artist and composer who predominantly works with choreographed performances and concerts. Her music and theatre performances are directly related to political, social and architectural contexts. Zorka Wollny lives in Berlin and Szczecin.

About the performance

Zorka Wollny's Voicers - Oratorio for 5 Speakers and a Listening Crowd (2019) deals with the political speech. She samples different types of political speeches in contemporary public life and transforms their clichés into material for her post-operative performance.

Prerequisites

We are looking for 20 male, rather tall amateur performers with a bass voice who would like to support the opening performance. They will slowly walk through the crowd and hum both loudly and quietly. No singing experience or similar qualification is necessary. Likewise, no special costume is required, only a black T-shirt is to be brought along.

Rehearsals: 17.9., 18.9. and 19.9.19

Performance: 19.9.19, 17:00 (duration: approx. 30 min.)

Venue: Landhaushof Graz

To participate in the application process, please send an email with the subject "Zorka Wollny" including a short curriculum vitae and a photo to the following address:
perform@steirischerherbst.at

The successful candidates receive a fixed fee for rehearsals and performances.
